

TEXAS CHURCHES WILL CELEBRATE DAY OF VICTORY

METHODISTS, CATHOLICS,
BAPTISTS, CHRISTIANS,
EPISCOPALS PLAN.

By Associated Press.
FORT WORTH, Texas, Nov. 9.—Churches of several denominations in Texas will observe Armistice Day, Nov. 11, in some form of memorial, according to leaders in the denominations. Special programs have been fixed by some denominations, while ministers of other churches will determine their own observance.

Southwestern Baptist Institute, near Fort Worth, will have a special service under the auspices of the executive committee in the observance of the day. According to L. R. Scarborough, president, there will be addresses and a special military program.

"We are very glad to cooperate with the rest of the god people in this land in commemorating the heroic deeds of our men and the men of other nations who won the battle for democracy," President Scarborough said.

As a result of the observance of Armistice Day devoted mainly by the Catholic bishops of the United States, as scheduled in Washington, D. C., last September, services will be held on that day in the parish churches throughout the five dioceses in Texas, according to the Right Rev. J. P. Lynch, bishop of the Diocese of Dallas. Special prayers will be said for humanity among the delegates who will meet in Washington for the purpose of bringing about a limitation of armament and a better understanding among the nations.

Bishop Lynch said, adding, "All to the end that an anxious world may be relieved of the crushing burden now weighing down the peoples by reason of their mutual jealousies and mistrust of one another."

Christian churches throughout Texas are generally preparing to observe Armistice Day and are in favor of everything that will help to prevent war, including the disarmament of nations insofar as this is one thing," said J. B. Mahood, executive director of the Texas Christian Missionary Society.

The memorial of the signing of the armistice has been left to the individual churches in the Episcopal churches of Texas, according to the bishops.

"It is the purpose of the Episcopal churches throughout this diocese to observe Armistice Day by prayer and meditation, the nature of such observance, apart from this being left to the individual churches to decide," the Right Rev. Clinton Chis, bishop coadjutor of the Diocese of Texas, announced. "Our message to our people on this day is that we must measure up as a nation to our place of leadership among the nations of the world."

Special services will be held on Nov. 11 at El Paso, Texas, where all the pastors at the Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be in session, according to the Rev. W. H. Matthews, presiding elder of the Fort Worth district. Bishop W. N. Ainsworth probably will address the conference on this occasion, the Rev. Mr. Matthews said.

POPE BENEDICT APPROVES PLAN FOR DISARMING

APOSTOLIC DELEGATE WILL REPORT PROCEEDINGS
AT PARLEYS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Pope Benedict approves President Harding's plan to bring about the limitation of armament by common understanding among the nations. The attitude of the Holy see is considered, especially by Catholics, as most important since it insures to the conference the support of what is termed by many "the greatest moral and spiritual power in the world."

Although the Pope has no representative at the conference, Monsignor Bonzano, apostolic delegate in Washington, will follow the proceedings and report them to the Vatican.

The Vatican's interest in the development of the conference is so great that attention to it may be made in his address which the Pope will deliver in the consistory of November 21, a which, however, no new cardinal will be created, as otherwise Monsignor Bonzano would be one of them. Monsignor Bonzano is regarded by the Vatican as one of its most distinguished representatives abroad and especially fitted to follow the work of the conference as he was for quite a time in China and thoroughly familiar with problems of the Far East.

The Rome correspondent of the Associated Press understands that the Pope claims a priority in the achievement of limitation of armaments which he hopes will lead to disarmament after this. His peace date, of August 1, 1917, to all the belligerent powers urged them to agree on some fundamental principles to end the war and to just and lasting peace.

The Vatican was so concerned to the achievement of this to the United States government that as Monsignor Bonzano's position is not of a diplomatic character, the note was sent to the State department through the British embassy office and the British ambassador in Washington. It invited all the countries at war to agree "upon the simultaneous and reciprocal decrease of armaments," limiting them only to that strictly necessary for the domestic maintenance of order.

Plan Explained.

At the same time Cardinal Gasparri gave to the Associated Press a statement in which the papal secretary of state further explained the Pope's plan and his belief that only disarmament could assure a durable peace based upon principles of justice. Cardinal Gasparri said that he is the chief of the Vatican and that he is the chief of the Vatican.

The United States and England have to disarm, the cardinal pointed out, and he urged that with conscription abolished an offensive war would be almost materially impossible in Europe and disarmament would necessarily take its place.

Monsieur Ceretti, the papal nuncio, in Paris, spent nine years in Washington at the apostolic delegation and is said to know American men and affairs better than any one else at the Vatican. He had a long interview with Mr. Field, the French premier, before the French premier left Paris and indicated to him the point of view of the Vatican on the subject.

New Garage Opens On Sixth Street

Mr. L. Young and Ed Potts, both well known young men in Amarillo, have opened a new garage at 508 West Sixth street, known as The Oak Garage. They will make a specialty of overhauling Ford's, however, they will expect repair work on any make of machine. Young has worked in Amarillo garages, and was for 16 months in the exact electrical automobile repair department with the American forces near the front lines in France during the world war.

JAP PREMIER SAID GOD N CONFERENCE

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—During an impressive memorial service which was held at the Japanese embassy for Premier Hara, who was assassinated last Friday at Tokyo, Benjumei Yokota, who particularly represents the Japanese cabinet, revealed that on the eve of the signing of the disarmament conference delegation from Japan, Mr. Hara, expressed the conviction that President Harding is calling the conference was the instrument of God. The prime minister was not known as a religious man, and Mr. Yokota explained that he was deeply moved to hear his chief and friend burst into a flood of religious emotion in discussing the Washington conference.

"President Harding has been inspired by God to do this," said the premier, and it behooves mankind, which he represented at this conference, to accomplish things by the high and lasting spirit of humanity. If the men who go to Washington from the various countries do not succeed, I firmly believe that it is because human nature has not yet attained the stage of perfection which God expects of it. If the conference fails I believe it means that mankind must further suffer."

EDWIN W. FIELD,
Milwaukee, Wis.

"I'm convinced that I had taken Tan two years ago, when my troubles first began. I would have been saved a world of worry," said Ed W. Field, 325 Jefferson St., Milwaukee, Wis.

"My case proved just what a man's stomach goes wrong, everything goes wrong with him. The first thing I noticed out of the way was loss of appetite and next, that no matter how much I ate, I was sure to have an attack of indigestion. This was two years ago and from that time on, until I started on Tanbark, I kept going down hill at a steady rate. I finally got so bad I couldn't walk a couple of blocks without having to stop and rest and I was so nervous that often I sat up in a chair all night long."

"Tanbark has made a new man out of me. My stomach is as sound as a dollar and I feel fine all the time. I am a firm believer in Tanbark because I know it cures the stomach."

Tanbark is sold in Amarillo by Randal Drug Co.
